International fare fuels first PoloPalooza

More than 300 watch exhibition on private polo field to benefit Boys & Girls Club of Palm Beach County.

Simon and Elina Garber, new residents of Wellington, lent their private polo field — that's right, private polo field — for the inaugural PoloPalooza to benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs.

The event took place April 17 and included an Argentinian-style asado, cocktails, a caviar tasting, a raffle, an exotic animal presentation and hand-rolled cigars.

The afternoon's highlight was an exhibition match between Garber's polo teams SLS Jets and Yellow Cab — the latter a nod to the thousands of taxicabs that are the source of Garber's fortune.

More than 300 guests attended, including 50 youngsters from the Boys & Girls Clubs, who were the Garbers' guests.

Proceeds benefited the Boys & Girls Clubs of Palm Beach County.
